

DESERT SPECIALIST

BRIGADES

MMCC Brigades represents a distinct set of professions, with specific costume requirements known as Brigade Requirement Lists (BRLs). Members wishing to join a brigade must meet both CRL and BRL requirements to apply for recognition.

CHOOSE YOUR PATH. HONOR YOUR SKILLS. GO ABOVE AND BEYOND.

Desert Ops excel in blistering heat and endless sand. Their armor is designed to endure relentless sun, sandstorms, and dehydration, giving them the upper hand in barren and windswept terrain.

Cycler Rifle

Gaffi Stick

Custom Amban Pulse Phase Rifle

Desert Staff

DESERT WEAPONS

In the shifting desert sands, a scoped rifle provides vital protection across vast open terrain. A sturdy staff doubles as both a walking aid and an effective close-quarters weapon.

WEAPONS

A dependable survival knife is a desert essential. Useful for everything from fieldcraft and resource gathering to emergency defense, it remains one of the most valuable tools in an adventurer's kit.

Static Knife

Bone Knife

Virbro Knife

Minimum required armor includes collar, chest, abdomen, back, cod/armored loin cloth, shoulders, gauntlets, and knees. Era-specific requirements apply regardless of which BRL is selected.

ARMOR

DESERT OP FEATURES

Desert Ops blend into arid, dusty environments. Their colors must be primarily browns, tans, brick reds, and earthy grays with minimal brighter accent colors.

Desert kits require heavy weathering, with dust, sand abrasion, and sun bleaching reflecting prolonged exposure to harsh desert conditions.

SPECIALIZED EQUIPMENT

Desert Trophies

Desert Cape

Desert Scarf

Sand-repelling Sidearm

Water Gourd

Macrobinocs

Desert Boots

Water Storage

Survival Kits

Mini-moisture Vaporator