

FOREST SPECIALIST

BRIGADES

MMCC Brigades represents a distinct set of professions, with specific costume requirements known as Brigade Requirement Lists (BRLs). Members wishing to join a brigade must meet both CRL and BRL requirements to apply for recognition.

CHOOSE YOUR PATH. HONOR YOUR SKILLS. GO ABOVE AND BEYOND.

Forest Ops thrive in dense foliage and tangled undergrowth. Their armor allows for stealth, mobility, and protection while navigating the complex and dangerous ecosystems of heavily wooded worlds.

Custom Rifle

Modified EE-3 Carbine

Blaster Pistol

MW-20 Bryar

RANGED WEAPON

A ranged weapon that can be used in the dense forest is a key element of any active woodland warrior.

WEAPONS

A hunting knife, hatchet, hand axe, or small survival knife allows the Forest Specialist to survive in the wild.

Beskad

Small Survival Knives

Machete

Hand Axe

Minimum required armor includes collar, chest, abdomen, back, cod/armored loin cloth, shoulders, gauntlets, and knees. Era-specific requirements apply regardless of which BRL is selected.

ARMOR

FOREST OP FEATURES

Forest Ops specialize in blending with a forest environment so their colors are primarily browns, tans, greens, and earthy grays with minimal black and brighter accent colors.

The forest kit should be lightly to heavily weathered with dirt, mud and scratches to show encounters with the flora-heavy environment.

SPECIALIZED EQUIPMENT

Ration Packs

Thermal Blankets

Grapple

First Aid Kit

Water Storage Device

Rope

Signal Flares

High Tension Wire

Water Filtration Devices

Glow Rod