

FORCE HUNTER

BRIGADES

MMCC Brigades represents a distinct set of professions, with specific costume requirements known as Brigade Requirement Lists (BRLs). Members wishing to join a brigade must meet both CRL and BRL requirements to apply for recognition.

CHOOSE YOUR PATH. HONOR YOUR SKILLS. GO ABOVE AND BEYOND.

Force Hunters are elite warriors trained specifically to track, fight, and eliminate Force users across the galaxy. Whether hunting Jedi, Sith, or rogue adepts, these Mandalorians arm themselves with long-range weaponry, flamethrowers, and specialized melee weapons designed to counter Force defenses. With relentless drive and nerves of beskar, they confront foes others fear to face, knowing full well that most encounters will end with one combatant dead. Force Hunters wear reinforced armor and often display hard-won trophies of their dangerous craft.

Slug Throwers

A180

SPECIALIZED EQUIPMENT

Force Hunters carry a diverse arsenal to counter enemies with unique abilities. Their greatest strength lies in adapting their weapons and tactics to overcome any opponent.

Vibro Halberd

WEAPONS

A beskar, electro, or cortosis blade is invaluable when silence is essential to the mission.

Beskad

Kal

Curved Knife

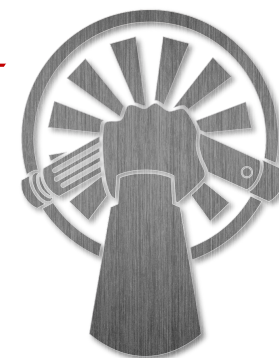

Hand Pike

Minimum required armor includes neck, collar, chest, abdomen, back, cod, shoulders, gauntlets, boots, biceps, thighs, shins, and knees. Era-specific requirements apply regardless of which BRL is selected.

ARMOR

FORCE HUNTER FEATURES

- Jetpack: A jetpack or jet boots must be worn.
- Weathering: Light, medium, or heavy weathering is acceptable. Weathering must include lightsaber-specific battle damage, such as scorch marks.
- Colors: Neon, fluorescent, or excessively bright or reflective colors are not permitted.

SPECIALIZED EQUIPMENT

Kyber Trophies

Grenades

Taozin Amulet

Jet Boots

Trophies

Crush Gaunts

Lightsaber Trophies

Decapitation Collars

Lightsaber Burns

JetPack