

DEMOLITIONS

BRIGADES

MMCC Brigades represents a distinct set of professions, with specific costume requirements known as Brigade Requirement Lists (BRLs). Members wishing to join a Brigade must meet both CRL and BRL requirements to apply for recognition.

CHOOSE YOUR PATH. HONOR YOUR SKILLS. GO ABOVE AND BEYOND.

Explosions are the answer. Demolitions specialists unleash catastrophic damage, leveling buildings, breaching enemy lines, and clearing paths for strike teams. Whether facing man, machine, or fortification, the Demolitions expert knows exactly what boom gets the job done.

Mag Charge

DEMOLITIONS WEAPONS

Demolitions experts are renowned for their skill with explosives, carrying a variety of charges for nearly any situation. Keep an eye on these specialists—you never know what they might find amusing.

WEAPONS

A simple sidearm is useful for triggering long-range detonations, while a two-handed blaster helps keep enemies at a distance.

Westar 35

A180

Westar 35s

Minimum required armor includes collar, chest, abdomen, back, cod, shoulders, gauntlets, boot, shin, thigh, and knees. Era-specific requirements apply regardless of which BRL is selected.

ARMOR

DEMOLITIONS FEATURES

- Colors: Demolition specialists must wear muted colors suited to blending with their operating environment. Appropriate colors may include black, gray, brick red, brown, olive, or similar earth and industrial tones.
- Weathering: Required. Acceptable weathering includes dirt, soot, blast scorching, shrapnel pits or divots, scratches, and comparable combat damage. Bite and claw marks are not permitted.
- Armor: Cod plates are required for this profession.

SPECIALIZED EQUIPMENT

Skeleton Keys

Data-spike Lockbreaker

Fusion Cutter

Remote Detonation Controls

First Aid Kit

One-handed Blaster

Gauntlet-mounted Light

Vibro Knife

Bandolier for Explosives

Helmet-mounted Light