WAIST ITEMS

SASH

A sash may be worn beneath other waist items or used as a waist item. A sash used as a belt item must be tailored to look like a quality in-universe part of the costume and fit its overall aesthetic. If worn beneath the belt, its loose ends may hang below it. Ensure edges are finished.

Structured Sash

Sash does not touch upper torso armor

Sash is worn under the belt and over the vest

The top of the cod, loin cloth, and kama are concealed beneath the sash

Unstructured Sash

CUMMERBUND

A substantial, structural piece of padded fabric styled similarly to those worn by live-action Mandalorians. Its top edge must be hidden beneath the flak vest, and its bottom edge must not extend past the belt or other waist items. Only a center trapezoidal flap may extend 3–4 inches (7.5–10 cm) past the waist items.

Top of cummerbund is under the vest

Bottom of cummerbund is under waist items

Additional flap (may not extend more than 4in (10cm) below waist items

APRON

A substantial, structural piece of padded fabric that covers the center of the abdomen and is styled similarly to those worn by live-action Mandalorians. Its top edge must be hidden beneath the flak vest, and its bottom edge must not extend past the belt or other waist items. Only a center trapezoidal flap may extend 3–4 inches (7.5–10 cm) past the waist items.

Top of apron is under or over the vest

Apron covers the central portion of the abdomen

Ends no more than 4in (10cm) below waist items

